2016 ANNUAL REPORT

what we do

The Elma Area Community Foundation connects people who care about community with the nonprofits who are doing the most good here.

We do this by helping to simplify the philanthropic process, giving generous people a way to support what they care about. Gifts to the Community Foundation become part of a permanent endowment, which means they will benefit your community forever. We invest gifts so they grow, maximizing the resources available to use for grantmaking that addresses community needs.
