

PAWS Humane Society Endowment Fund

About PAWS Humane Society

Prior to the establishment of PAWS Humane Society in 2000, all stray cats and dogs picked up by Animal Control or the Charles City Police Department within the city were held for seven days and then euthanized. Since 2001, PAWS has placed over 2,500 cats and dogs into loving homes and is one of the few no-kill animal control shelters in Iowa. PAWS is primarily volunteer managed and operated.

An endowment fund has been established at the Community Foundation for the purpose of providing necessary vet care, food and shelter to the homeless animals in Charles City who are awaiting their forever homes. PAWS also envisions building an improved facility in the future. For more information visit www.pawsonline.org.
