About the Chickasaw County Community Foundation

The Chickasaw County Community Foundation, an affiliate of the Community Foundation of Northeast Iowa, is a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization created by and for the people of Chickasaw County. Our mission is to respond to the current and future charitable needs of Chickasaw County by securing endowment funds, creating mechanisms to meet community needs, serving as a convener to examine and determine community needs, and facilitating the development of solutions to community problems.

What We Support

The Chickasaw County Community Foundation will provide grants to improve life in Chickasaw County, Iowa. We want to help develop communities that people want to live in, as well as to benefit rural areas of the county. Foundation funding supports projects in the following program areas:

Arts & Culture

Community Betterment

Education & Youth Development

Environment & Animal Welfare

Health

Human Service

Eligibility to Apply

Organizations must provide benefits to the people of the Chickasaw County and must meet the following criteria in order to apply for a grant:

- Be classified as a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization or be a government entity. Tax-exempt organizations classified as other than 501(c)(3) are also eligible if and only if the project is deemed charitable; please contact our office to discuss the project's eligibility prior to submitting a proposal.
- Be current with all state and federal reporting requirements, such as filing of 990 forms.
- Must not have any past due grant reports for previous Chickasaw Community Foundation grants.

For groups, projects, or initiatives that do not meet the above eligibility requirements, the Community Foundation will consider your requests if submitted through a fiscal sponsor. Fiscal sponsors must be classified as a 501(c)(3) or a government entity. The Foundation prefers that the fiscal sponsor's mission closely align with the sponsored project. Fiscal Sponsors will be legally and financially responsible for any grant funds that are awarded by the Chickasaw County Community Foundation.

Restrictions

- One application per organization per year with the exemption of Government Entities and Fiscal Sponsors; however, fiscal sponsors may only submit one application per sponsored organization. Government entities may submit only one application per department. Schools are considered government entities for foundation granting purposes.
- The minimum request is $1,000; maximum request is $10,000.
- Inherently religious activities such as religious worship, instruction, or proselytization or activities that promote specific religious doctrine are not eligible.
- In general, the CCCF does not fund general operating costs of a project, including salaries.
- Requests for debt repayment or pass-through funds are not eligible.
- Bids/estimates for work to be completed are strongly encouraged to be included in applications.
- Late, incomplete, or hard copy applications will not be considered. Incomplete applications are those that are in DRAFT mode at the time of the application deadline.

Review Criteria

Applications will be reviewed and scored on the following elements:

- Organization – The overall health of the organization and how the application reflects the organization’s capability for completing the project.
- Feasibility – The probability the project will be successful, including the organization’s level of staff/volunteers and collaboration with community partners.
- Community Need and Outcomes – The need for the project and how the proposed outcomes impact the community/county.
- Project Budget – The details of the budget and the ability to secure and/or leverage other funding sources, including in-kind services.

Funding Priority

Highest priority for funding is given to projects that:

- Provide a detailed budget and show other funding sources for the project.
- Show substantial long-term community impact through number of individuals served.
- Show the ability to be sustained once the grant funds are expended.

Please note: The project or program described in your application may be funded in full, partially funded or not at all. The more information you can provide in your application the better.
