

Black Hawk County Vietnam Veterans' Scholarship Fund

Black Hawk County Vietnam Veterans' Scholarship Fund

Of the 58,000 who sacrificed their life for our country in the Vietnam War, 45 of those soldier's were from Black Hawk County. In 1987, the Black Hawk County Vietnam Veterans' Scholarship Fund was established as a living memorial to the Vietnam Veterans of Black Hawk County. The fund is one of the earliest endowed scholarships of the Community Foundation of Northeast Iowa.

The scholarship is awarded to graduating seniors of Black Hawk County, Jesup and Janesville high schools who are planning to enroll full-time at a university, college, or vocational/technical institution. Additionally, students must have a war veteran in their family, with priority given to a student with a family member that is a Vietnam veteran.
