About Charles City FFA

As one of the oldest Future Farmers of America (FFA) chapters in Iowa, chartered in 1930, Charles City FFA holds a history of preparing students for careers in the agriculture industry, developing leaders, and serving communities in the Charles City Community School District. The Charles City FFA is as active today as it has been in the last century. As part of the Agriculture Education Program, FFA strives to develop the potential for premier leadership, personal growth, and career success for all members. More information about Charles City FFA can be found at www.facebook.com/CharlesCityFFA.

Your Gift Will Keep on Giving

The Charles City FFA Endowment Fund is a permanent fund with the Floyd County Community Foundation. Donated dollars to the fund are invested and only the income from the fund is granted out, which allows the Charles City FFA to carry out their mission now, and forever.

Gifts to the fund will be used to help future FFA members attend leadership conferences and conventions, and will also be used to help provide leadership development workshops. To learn more about this fund, contact the Community Foundation at 319-287-9106 or info@cfneia.org.
